WHAT DO YOU THINK?

With this issue of WTFW we begin our 17th year of publication. Once devoted almost exclusively to club and AAU athletics, we now concentrate on the colleges and the NCAA. With the emphasis on the colleges and with every college with a track program receiving WTFW, we welcome your remarks and suggestions. Drop us a line and tell us what's good and what's bad and what you'd like to see in the magazine. WTFW is for you. Let us hear.

Former Occidental College great Jim Cerveny is now the head coach at San Diego State replacing Fred LaPlante who is now the head coach at USC.....Maxine Underwood did not return to Houston.... Wanta run for Cal State Los Angeles? If so you'd best hit the books for they have toughened up their eligibility requirements far above the minimum listed by the NCAA.....Three Moorhead University cross country runners, Pam Harty, Jane Remark and Kay Schoening, have been named Academic All-Americans by the NAIA....BYU, never known for its fast sprinters, may just have one this time around. Not so. Any sprinter who can run the 100m in 11.0 is at a disadvantage as a hurdler as long as the hurdle spacing remains as it is. The fast sprinter must slow down to run the present day 100m hurdles....

NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

The nations two top collegiate cross country teams for 1983 are shown in these fine shots by Bill Leung, Jr. On the left is the Number One team from the University of Oregon consisting of Kathy Hayes, Kim Roth, Lisa Martin, Kim Ryan, Gretchen Nelson and Claudette Groendaal, (not necessarily in that order). On the right is Number Two Stanford University of PattiSue Plumer, Michele Mason, Regina Jacobs, Cory Schubert, Allison Wiley and Ceci Hopp.

NCAA DIVISION I OREGON IN NARROW WIN

Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, Nov. 21: in one of the closest cross country championships ever, the University of Oregon emerged victorious as only 12 points separated the first five teams. Favored Stanford gave it a great effort with injured runners competing on the off chance they could pick up some points for their school, but it was not enough as the Ducks tallied 95 points for the crown to 98 for Stanford, 99 for North Carolina State, 103 for Tennessee and 107 for Wisconsin.

Stanford lost its chance when an injured Ceci Hopp, 3rd in 1982, finished 66th, Alison Wiley, 9th last year crossed in 23rd position and Michele Mason, a 16:24 5000m runner in '82, could get no better than 124th. The rest of the Cardinal crew came through as Regina Jacobs moved up from her 82' finish in 27th to 9th this year and PattiSue improved from 44th to 10th. New

NCAA DIVISION II TITLE TO CAL POLY/SLO - AGAIN

Kenosha, Wisconsin, Nov. 12: The elements at the NCAA Division II National Championships at St. Cloud, in 1982 were horrendous. No one expected a repeat performance by Mother Nature for the 1983 Championships. Good thought. But the two days preceding this year's title race, Kenosha came up with snow, wind and freezing temperature. On race day things settled down a bit and the temperature crept up as high as 30 and the winds dropped and Cal Poly/San Luis Obispo did their thing once again.

The Mustangs' Amy Harper, who has been getting trounced by UC Davis' Pati Gray most of the year, successfully defended her individual national crown as she and Gray battled the entire distance. Harper pulled away over the final 400 meters for the win in 17:10 with Gray just four seconds to the rear.

NCAA DIVISION III NEUBAUER REPEATS

Newport News, Virginia, Nov. 19: Cover girl Tori Neubauer, Wisconsin/LaCrosse, successfully defended her NCAA Division III Cross Country title and this year led the Indians to the team title as well.

Neubauer's time of 16:29 was a new meet record, not too great an accomplishment when one realizes the first 69 runners broke the meet record of 18:42!

St. Thomas was second in the scoring and also provided the second place finisher in Jennifer Hintz who chased Neubauer across the line nine seconds to the rear.

RESULTS: 1-Torl Neubauer (Wis/LC) 16:29, 2-Jennifer Hintz (St. Thomas) 16:38, 3-Cindy Nagle (Claremont-Mudd-Scripps) 4-Linda Zeman (Macalester) 16:50, 5-Meilssa Lacasse (Cortland St) 16:52, 6-Julia Kirtland (Macalester) 16:55, 7-Sarah Hintz (St T) 16:56, 8-Liz Kneale (Ithaca) 17:04, 9-Denise Pauli (Franklin & Marshall) 17:09, 10-Cindy Gallagher (Wis/Stevens Pt) 17:13, 11-Barbara Gubbins (Stony Brook) 17:16, 12-Alice Willis (Binghampton) 17:14, 13-Diane Weeder (SE Mass) 17:23, 14-Dorcas Denhartog (Middlebury) 17:23, 15-Donna Weeder (SE Mass)

TAC CHAMPIONSHIPS

State College, Pennsylvania, Nov. 26: A couple of the smallest athletes showed the world that being big isn't necessarily being better. Betty Springs and Nan Doak went 1-2 earlier in the week at the NCAA Championships and they did it again here today. Springs, the larger of the two at 5'2/100 won over Doak who checks in at 4'11/89.

Springs was challenged for the first 1½ miles by defending champ Lesley Welch, former collegian, but Welch ran out of gas as Springs cruised by the two mile mark in a very swift 10:22. Welch

BETTY SPRINGS, North Carolina State, won both the NCAA and TAC Championships.

TAC JUNIORS

State College, Pennsylvania, Nov. 26: Kelly Madden, a 16-year old high school sophomore from St. Claire's High School in Rosindale, Massachusetts, was the solo winner in the TAC Junior Women's Championships. Madden went to the front at the gun, passed the mile in 5:36 and won by 15 seconds over Michelle Sica. Madden is 5'6/101.

RESULTS: 1-Kelly Madden (NBTC) 18:16, 2-Michelle Sica (Queen City Striders) 18:31, 2-Gina Braz (Falmouth) 18:34, 4-Cheryl Tuosto (Virginia Tech) 18:39, 5-Patty Metzler (N Car St) 19:04, 6-Holly Loht (Penn St) 19:11, 7-Lisa Frey (QCS) 19:22, 8-Anne Shafer (Penn St) 19:24, 9-Jill Robinson (QCS) 19:25, 10-Suzanne Walker (Penn St) 19:29, 11-Kristina Nagurny (James Madison) 19:30, 12-Pat Cullinane (Falmouth) 19:36, 13-Kathy Plank (QCS) 19:44, 14-Terne Block (James Madison) 19:54, 15-Lisa Poss (Penn St) 19:54. test' with the Mustangs scoring a low of 48 points to 92 for runner-up Holy Cross.

Looking forward to 1984 - with the meet scheduled in warmer climes at Jackson, Mississippi, be ye warned that Cal Poly returns seven of its first eight runners, (only Harper graduates), adds five All-Americans from the 1982 national championship team who have been redshirting this season, and will undoubtedly pick up some swift freshmen and transfers. Whom do you believe will be the 1984 favorite?

BOSTON COLLEGE WINS

Worcester, Mass, Oct. 29: Thirty three schools gathered for the running of the New England Championships, but it was strictly a two-team race. Boston University, led by Marty Shea's course record run of 17:14.28, had the first three finishers but lost the title to cross town rival Boston College 57-63 when their fifth runner could place no higher than 43rd. The Eagles won it by placing 4-5-7-19-22

To further establish themselves as THE power in New England, BC also captured the junior varsity crown with a low score of just 17 points as they ran 1-2-3-6-7-8 led by Audrey Norton.

RESULTS: 1-Marty Shea (BU) 17:14, 2-Linda Reddy (BU) 17:47, 3-Donna Adamoli (BU) 17:51, 4-Sharon Willis (BC) 17:57, 5-(BU) 17:51, 4-Sharon Willis (BC) 17:57, 5-Nancy Small (BC) 17:59, 6-Anne Miller (NH) 18:00, 7-Michele Hallett (BC) 18:01, 8-Dorcus Denhartog (Md) 18:03, 9-Maria Fahy (Ct) 18:08, 10-Eloise Evans (SR) 18:12, 11-Carol Cunniff (Nor) 18:13, 12-Donna Weeder (SMU) 18:14, 13-Kerry Keenan (NH) 18:16, 14-Kristen O'Connell (RI) 18:17, 15-Diane Weeder (SMU) 18:20,

PROVENCIO POWERS UTEP

By Tracey Judd

Santa Teresa, Texas, Oct. 31: Old softball players never die.....they just change occupations. That's the story behind UTEP junior Debbie Provincio, the top finisher in the first-ever Oil Country Athletic Conference cross country meet. Provencio's number one finish helped power the Lady Miners to an over-whelming first place finish in the meet. UTEP took the top spot with 19 points, 29 points in front of runner-up UT/San Antonio. Oral Roberts was third followed by Hardin-Simmons, Oklahoma City and West Texas State.

Provencio's Cinderella story began this summer when the Las Cruces native decided against softball as a career at New Mexico State, and instead turned her interests toward the UTEP crosscountry program. First year head coach Gary Mazziotti wasn't sure Provincio would even be running for the Lady Miners this season, but was, needless to sav. pleased when Debbie was on hand for the fall season.

Provencio has been climbing the chart all season for Mazziotti's Lady Miners. Not a polished runner due to the fact she's only been at it for about eight months, Mazziotti claims Debbie's stickto-it-iveness and intelligence as a runner as the main reason for her climb to the top. "Debbie doesn't have a lot of natural talent, but has more than made up for it with smart running," the coach said. Prior to her surprising number one spot at the OCAC meet, Provincio had placed in the top 10 three times in the four official meets for UTEP this season, her best performance being a fourth place out of 70 runners during UTEP's stunning victory at the Georgetown Invitation=

The outcome of the meet was never in The semi-expected dual for first place between UTEP and UTSA was lost in a cloud of UTEP dust at the beginning and ultimately at the end of the The only real question was: who would take first?

The answer was truly up in the air at about the half-mile mark when UTEP's premier runner, junior Marit Risan, went crumbling to the grass after her legs cramped. The Norway native had to call it a day, and from there the outcome was anybody's guess.

Provencio came across the finish line with no one in sight save the small speck in the distance which proved to be UTEP teammate Mary Gignac. Provencio finished the 5000m course in 17:45.92, a course and meet record.

Other than Provencio's first place finish, the main surprises of the meet were the teams finishes of Oklahoma City and Hardin-Simmons. Both clubs had limited experience running this fall, with the OCAC meet being Oklahoma City's first of the season. However, both teams, made up mostly of basketball players, withstood the challenge of the 5000m course and the fast pace set by the other runners and probably exceeded their own expectations.

RESULTS: 1-Debble Provincio (UTEP) 17: 45, 2-Mary Gignac (UTEP) 18:03, 3-Eva Duran (UTEP) 18:09, 4-Gioria Mejia (UTEP) 18:36, 5-Melanie Harris (UTSA) 18:45, 6-Wendy Nor-man (UTSA) 18:50, 7-Laura Farias (UTSA) 18:52, 8-Taria Nurmisto (OR) 18:54, 9-Janine (UTEP) 18:56, 10-Dlana Trujillo (UTEP) 19:17.

Scores, 1-UTEP 19, 2-UTSA 48, 3-Oral Roberts 62, 4-Hardin-Simmons 125, 5-Okla-homa City 136, 6-West Texas State 138. Num-ber of finishers - 38.

BELLEVUE WINS NWAACC

Eugene, Oregon, Nov. 11:With the first five finishers coming across the line only 34 seconds apart, Bellevue City College (Washington) annexed the North West community college title over host Lane 40-53. While the Lane duo of Jeanie Higinbotham and Pam Vasey was placing 1-2, Bellevue's first finisher didn't appear until fifth place, but the Helmsmen came across in a flury after that.

NCAA DISTRICT V

Ames, Iowa, Nov. 12: Missouri had the stars, Iowa State had the depth and the depth paid off as the Cyclones won the District title with 39 points.

Missouri's twosome of Sabrina Dornhoefer and Andrea Fischer were 1-2 with teammate Jill Kingsbury not that far back in sixth scoring position. Best of the rest of the Tigers was Cyd Thomas who scored 21st. Meanwhile, Iowa State was doing its thing with a bunch finish at 4-5-7-10-13-14-16 as all seven entries finished in a 37 second span.

And add yet another 'meanwhile' for Kansas State who placed 3-8-9-15-17 to push Missouri back yet another notch and grab the runner-up spot.

BYU WINS REGION VII TITLE

El Paso, Texas, Nov. 12: Brigham Young University, with three runners finishing in the top 10, easily captured the Region VII cross country title over 12 other institutions. Montana was next with 83 points, far more than BYU's winning 54.

South African Patsy Sharples showed up for a rare appearance to win the individual crown over Scotwoman Andrea Everett by four seconds in 17:33. BYU's Jill Holliday broke up the foreign contingent with her third place finish, but the overseas lassies picked up 4th, 5th and 6th places with runners from Ireland, Canada and Norway taking the honors.

SOUTHERN CAL JC CHMPS

Oceanside, California, Nov. 12: Host Mira Cost looked to be a sure winner as the school staged the Southern California Junior College Championships. Spartans' Mara Lazdaus, Glynn Watt and Sandy Blakeslee finished 1-2-4 to give much hope in the breast of Coach Gilbert. Alas, it was not to be. The valiant trio failed to receive adequate support from their teammates and Mira Costa finished second to East Los Angeles by a measley two points, 55-57.

The race was won by Mt. San Antonio's Bernadette Torrez by a second over Lazdans in 16:42.5s.

RESULTS: 1-Bernadette Torrez (Mt.SAC) 16:42, 2-Mara Lazdans (MC) 16:43, 3-Glynn Watt (MC) 16:53, 4-Alexandra Aguirre (ELA) 16:59, 5-Sandy Blakeslee (MC) 17:13, 6-Autumn Bateson (Orange Cst) 17:24, 7-Mawinga Sote (Mt.SAC) 17:25, 8-Julie Vogt (El Camino) 17:30, 9-Michele McGinnis (Bak) 17:42, 10-Laura Saavedra (ELA) 17:44, 11-Lisa Bohl (Golden West) 17:45, 12-Jenny Green (ELA) 17:48, 13-Chris Ramirez (San Bernardino) 17:49, 14-Kate Johnson (Chaffey) 17:54, 15-Mandy Whistler (GW) 17:57

OREGON WHIPS STANFORD

Eugene, Oregon, Nov. 12: They finally Stanford, the number one cross met. country team in the nation, and Oregon, the number two team. Now, no one knows who is really Numero Uno. Oregon won this Region 8 Title over the Indians 33-71, but the margin wasn't really that large.

Between them, Oregon and Stanford controlled the first eight places. Oregon was 1-2-6-8 and Stanford 3-4-5-7. Kathy Hayes of the Eugene crew along with teammate Lisa Martin applied the 1-2 finish for the Ducks but it was still anyone's contest with the score 17-19. Newcomer Gretchen Nelson of Oregon put the finishing touch on the team battle when she crossed the line in 16th place. Stanford's fifth runner, Michelle Mason, one of the top distancers in the country these past few years, slipped to 53rd and that was that. Stanford once again ran without Ceci Hopp which is a big differ-The Cardinals were under no pressure to win this one for it was only a qualifying affair and so Ms Hopp sat out.

There were other surprises beside the team score. A surprising University of California at Irvine, under the direction of coach Vince O'Boyle, finished third and moved to the National finals. Irvine whupped such name teams as Arizona State, Arizona, UCLA, California and the Washington schools. UCLA was a very disappointing 9th in the scoring with several of their stars missing and Polly Plumer finishing 96th.

MELISSA LACASSE, Cortland State sophomore, won the NCAA Division III New York State Regional title.

CORTLAND STATE WINS TITLE

Cortland, New York, Nov. 13: Cortland State, led by Melissa Lacasse's 23 second victory margin, successfully defended its NCAA Division III New York State Regional title with a low score of 49 points. SUNY/Binghamton was next with 77 digits.

student Cory Schubert was 31st and the first four of the Cardinals led the first four of the Ducks 50-59, but the fifth runner killed them.

Oregon, on the other hand, was doing just about what was expected of them. Kathy Hayes, 39th in '82, finished 3rd, Lisa Martin 17th, Kim Roth 27th and Kim Ryan 41st. Gretchen Nelson and Claudette Groenendaal both finished ahead of Stanford's Number 5 and that was that.

Betty Springs took the individual crown by five seconds over a surprising Nan Doak of Iowa and Hayes, with the strong Missouri duo of Andrea Fischer and Sabrina Dornhoefer grabbing the next two spots.

Division III champ Tori Neubauer placed 11th. Division II champ Amy Harper of Cal Poly/SLO, did not enter.

Interesting to note the seemingly complete switch by so many runners from their 1982 place in this same meet to their 1983 place - almost a complete reversal. For example, we have already mentioned Ceci Hopp's slip from 3rd to 66th due to injuries and Alison Wiley's slip from 9th to 23rd, but they are not alone. Here are others who moved backward: Margaret Davis (Iowa State) 5th to 14th, Kate Wiley (Harvard) 8th to 57th, Beth Farmer (Florida) 11th to 26th, Suzanne Youngberg (Iowa State) 17th to 29th, Carey May (BYU) 21st to 38th, Margaret Wynne (Yale) 26th to 42nd, Doreen Startare (Penn State) 28th to 99th and Janel Neeley (BYU) 61st to 74th.

On the other hand, those near the lower part of the scale in 1982, moved up. We have mentioned Hayes who came from 39th in 1982 to 3rd in 1983. But she was not alone in this advancement. Nan Doak (Iowa) came from 10th to 2nd. Sabrina Dornhoefer 19th to 6th, Cathy Branta (Wisconsin) 20th to 8th, Regina Jacobs (Stanford) 17th to 9th, Katie Ishmael (Wisconsin) 36th to 18th, Joan Nesbit (North Carolina) 37th to 15th, Kim Roth (Oregon) 41st to 27th, Patti-Sue Plumer (Stanford) 44th to 10th, Tori Neubauer (Wisconsin/LC) 50th to 11th, Tina Krebs (Clemson) 59th to 7th, Andrea Everett (Wyoming) 60th to 13th and Lisa Martin (Oregon) 66th to 17th.

(From 'Metrack', a New York publication):

Two New York State high school graduates did well at the NCAA championships. Suzanne Girard was 13th for Georgetown, and Kim Ryan, one of the nation's leading runners at New Paltz last year, was 41st and the fourth scorer for the winning Oregon squad.

Suzanne, winner of the District meet over the same course two weekends ago, was pleased with her place (she was hoping to break into the top 15) but not with her race. "I only wish I had felt better," she said. "I was really working hard, but I wasn't going anywhere."

Over the first half of the race, Suzanne was with the lead pack which consisted of 10-12 runners closely bunched. When the pace got faster and a few runners began to break away from the pack, Suzanne "didn't feel good enough to go with them."

Part of the reason, she suggested, was she wasn't used to running against so many runners of such talent. In her previous races this fall, she said, she either won by a comfortable margin or was competitive with the leaders for much of the race.

"It was kind of a shock to get here and see so many good runners and then to have everyone running together in a pack. Maybe next year I'll try and run against better people in the early season so I'll be ready."

Kim Ryan doesn't have to worry about meeting national-caliber runners in the early season: she meets them every day in practice. This is quite a departure from her high school days when she had only her younger sister to train with and routinely won races in her area by a minute or more, but Kim has had few problems in adjusting. Simply stated, she loves it!

"That's why I went to Oregon," she explained, "to have competition. nice to work hard and train well and have other runners who can push you."

Still, Kim did need a short period to adapt. She started out as the seventh member on the team and recalls her first "I said to myself, formal workout.

'Are we always going to run this fast?' I'd never done that kind of work." She kept at it though, and when the big meets rolled around she was in full stride, running as fourth scorer through the final weeks.

Moving from the northeast to the northwest hasn't been a problem either. When the snow falls, she'll be able to practice cross-country skiing, an event which she won at the Empire State Winter Games as a prap.

MISSOURI'S ACE DUO

By Dolores Shearon

Juniors Sabrina Dornhoefer and Andrea Fischer are alike but different. Friends, but also competitors. And both Missouri cross country runners have big dreams - dreams that may carry them as far as the Olympics.

Dornhoefer recently won her second consecutive Big Eight title over Fischer, who had been considered the favorite after winning three of the team's four regular season meets. The two All Americans have much in common, but their backgrounds and personalities reflect a few differences.

A late starter on the high school scene, Fischer didn't run seriously until her senior year. And since her Hannibal High School didn't have a girl's cross country team, she ran with and against her male counterparts. Fischer put herself on a tough program - after working out twice a day with the boys, she would run some more during the evening on her own. After placing third or fourth on the team during most of the season, she actually placed ahead of all her teammates in one meet.

Dornhoefer started running in the 8th grade, but lived the life of an "Army Brat" her first three years of high school while her father was stationed in Germany. After he was transferred to Ft. Leonard Wood, she finished her career at Waynesville.

In addition to their unusual backgrounds, the two go about their running with different outlooks. Dornhoefer works hard at her trade, but admits that Fischer tops her enthusiasm regarding practice. Fischer's theory is, "If you can't put it all out in practice, when it comes to a race you may not be able to."

Manhattan College, New York, Oct. 4: Janet Smith (Stevens/Edison, NJ) garnered a measure of revenge for her 1982 Kinney loss to Chris Curtin (Mepham/ Bellevue, NY). Spurred by the memory of Curtin's kick, Smith blasted to a course record 14:31 over 2.5 miles at Van Cortland Park to re-establish herself as the favorite to regain the New Jersey all-group meet title which she won as a sophomore and lost last year as a junior. Second was another New Jersevite, Stacy Bilotta (North Hunterdon/Annandale) whose 14:56 led her squad to the team title. Curtin, feeling the effects of a cold, finished 32nd, fifth on the Mepham squad.

RESULTS: 1-Janet Smith (Stevens/Edison. #### BALDWINSVILLE THE BEST

Manlius, New York, Nov. 19: Baldwinsville of East Syracuse didn't have to travel far to gain the state's top honors. The school, which finished second last year, scored 96 points with Bonnie Gleeson leading the way in third and Terry Mero placing sixth.

Defending champion Mepham, running without Chris Curtin, placed fourth. The second place finisher was Washingtonville with 114. North Rockland was third with 143.

Curtin, last year's winner, interrupted her cross country season in order to rest and train for the indoor season.

Clarence, the NY Class A champion, finished a disappointing seventh. Mary Pat Hickey led the squad with her individual triumph clocking 18:43.7.

In the Sophomore Division, Jeanine Radice from St. Joseph's in Staten Island was the winner, clocking 19:11.

JANET SMITH WINS REGION

Van Cortland Park, New York, Nov. 26: Janet Smith, three-time New Jersey all-group champion from J.P.Stvens in Edison, remained undefeated this season, clocking 17:08 over the 5000m course to win the Kinney Northeat Regional Meet.

Second was Cathy Schiro, a junior at Dover HS in New Hampshire who set a US age-16 record for the half-marathon last September.

Smith, a 17-year old senior, ran in the last two national finals, placing fifth both times. She was runner-up in the regional meet the last two years.

RESULTS: 1-Janet Smith (NJ) 17:08, 2-Cathy Schiro (NH) 17:39, 3-Missy Duchini (NJ) 18:11, 4-Stacy Bilotta (NJ) 18:17, 5-Renee Harbaugh (Pa) 18:21, 6-Tracy Bowers (Pa) 18:24, 7-Vanessa Thompson (Ct) 18:30, 8-Kris Ryan (NY) 18:30, 9-Carol Parietti (NY) 18:31, 10-Michele Eitapence (Vt) 18:38. (From 'Metrack').

KINNEY WESTERN REGIONAL

Fresno, California, Dec. 3: Kirsten O'Hara (Palos Verdes) proved her Southern Section CIF win no fluke as she demolished an excellent field over the scenic Woodward Park 5000m course. In the midst of a wet California weekend, the closest thing to a California State meet lived up to expectations. O'Hara ran 17:25 for a 26 second win.

RESULTS: 1-Kirsten O'Hara (Palos Verdes) 17:25, 2-Laura Finkner (Davis) 17:51, 3-Sylvia Mosqueda (San Gabriel) 17:56, 4-Slentz (Lewis & Clark, Spokane, Wa) 17:59, 5-Plante (Arroyo Grande) 18:00, 6-Clark (Mountain View) 18:01, 7-Mason (Klamath Falls, Ore) 18:02, 8-Jarvis (Havre, Mont) 18:07.

MISSOURI TWOSOME (Continued)

The extra-vigorous training has certainly helped Fischer, but has contributed to injuries, too. She was red-shirted last fall because of running related problems, the biggest one being tendinitis in her lower right leg.

While her teammate was plagued with medical problems, Dornhoefer worried about the departure of Coach Dick Weis. She says she almost considered not returning to Missouri. The arrival of Lou Duesing, Weis' replacement, alleviated "I was glad when Coach those fears. Duesing told us how he operates. I was afraid of bad coaching - how some of them will have you peaking too soon and falling when the big meets come."

Barring any injuries, the two plan to attend the Olympic Trials this spring, but with realistic goals. Each says she would like to qualify for the final heat in the 3000m run, (the longest distance race on the track for women), and possibly make the American team for the 1984 Games. Meanwhile they say their biggest goal is to secure a team win for Missouri at the District 5 Championships on November 12, enabling the the entire team to compete in the NCAA Nationals on November 21.

(Ed. note: Missouri did not qualify for the NCAA Championships finishing third at the District V Meet in spite of the 1-2 finish of Dornhoefer and Fischer. At the NCAA Championships, Fischer finished 5th, Dornhoefer 6th. At the TAC Championships, Dornhoefer finished 4th, Fischer 5th, both runners making the US team for the forthcoming World Championships in March.)

CADY IS BEST ALL-AROUND THROWER

Stanford's Carol Cady came up with three all-time personal best during the 1983 season to become this nation's best All-Around Thrower. Cady's performances were 56'6% in the shot, 207'8 in the disc and 159'11 in the javelin for a total of 424 feet and 3013 points on the International Scoring Table. Only two other athletes had combined marks beyond 400 feet. Denise Wood, Knoxville TC, who placed second in the point scoring with 2923 points had a total of 403 feet and Houston's Dana Olson, tied for 5th with 2796 points, totaled 407 feet - but 195'0 of that total came in the javelin where a foot means less than in the shot. Compiling these statistics has been done by Joan Stratton. If you or one of your athletes should be on this list, write to her at Department of Surgery, Dartmouth Hitchcock Medical Center, Hanover, NH 03755. Also send any additions or corrections to her.

Odyssey

Women's Odyssey In the end, it is a question of anatomy. Not ability. Only when you come to terms with the structure of your own body—and how it reacts under stress—can you hope to live up to your potential. The Odyssey is an Air shoe. It comes in models for both men and women who, if they want to avoid a world of hurt, had better control that inward roll that occurs on footstrike.

Beaverton, Oregon

One thing is certain. If anatomy is destiny, you never had so much to look forward to.
