were the two due to meet the Russians.

The 29-year-old Clarke, cheered on by 27,846 fans, took the lead from the outset and finished about 80 yards ahead of Tracy Smith of the Pasadena Athletic Association, timed in 13:40.2.

The 5,000 meters was billed as the highlight of the two-day meet which replaced the USA-USSR affair, canceled when the Russians bowed out 10 days ago.

Clarke is scheduled to run the 10,000 meters Sunday, and sensational Jim Ryun will aim at Peter Snell's world 800-meter record, as well as his own 880-yard record.

Lee Evans, 19-year-old San Jose City College runner, ran the 400 meters in 45.2 and Charlie Greene of Nebraska captured the 100 meters in 10.4, the same time registered by George Anderson of Southern University.
