

Salinas won a double header, being first in section A, and won a half-point in the girls' meet in the morning when the Salinas girls won over Santa Cruz.

The 17th annual track and field meet brought hundreds from the adjoining cities, and with the Watsonville band and the pannants and colors, gave much life to the gathering.

The points won in the section A class were: Salinas 61½, Hollister 42½, Santa Cruz 40, Watsonville 17.

In section B, Gilroy made 111, Monterey 21, Pacific Grove 15, and Gonzales 13.

It was a great sight at the athletic grounds, a kaleidoscope of color, and in groups the rooters, spurred on by their yell leaders, cheered their favorites.
