Welcome to the first annual Palo Alto Easter Relays. Competing today will be some of the finest high school athletes in Northern California. It is the objective of this meet to provide challenging competition for these athletes and spectator interest for young people during the Easter vacation period. The Palo Alto Junior Chamber of Commerce is proud to have the opportunity to assist Coach Forrest Jamieson and Palo Alto High School in presenting this worthwhile event.

We welcome the guests from out-of-town and we thank the local citizens for their support in making this an annual program to which all may look forward.

Alvin A. Janklow, D.D.S.
President
Palo Alto Junior Chamber of Commerce

Competition in track and field sports not only develops skill and body co-ordination but builds individual confidence in the contestant because it is his individual performance which is the ultimate test. The public schools are proud to join with the Junior Chamber of Commerce in sponsoring the Easter Relays program and I join with the track coaches and the administrators of the schools in welcoming all the participants who have helped in making this program a success. May I wish each participant the best of luck in his individual event and urge him to give his best whether he comes in first or further down the list.

Dr. Henry M. Gunn
Superintendent,
Palo Alto Unified School District

There is a two-fold purpose for holding the Easter Relays, a meet officially sanctioned by the California Interscholastic Federation. This unique Track and Field Relays meet offers a wholesome activity for high school students of Northern California during the Easter vacation, and also gives many schools the chance to make concentrated attempts to approach or break national records. Competition is the best ingredient to break such marks, and this meet, which will bring together many of the top high school athletes in the nation, should provide the necessary spur for outstanding performances. We hope you enjoy the Relays and will be in attendance to watch the many meets on the calendar this season.

Forrest Jamieson
Easter Relays Meet Director

Meet Referee of the first annual Palo Alto Easter Relays is Andy Hardin, recreation director of the city of Hollister who retired last June after 39 years of coaching and teaching, 35 of them at Hollister High.

In 29 years as head coach of Hollister High sports, Andy Hardin won eight Coast Counties Athletic League championships in football, 12 in basketball and nine in track. But his contributions to the youth of Hollister go much deeper than anything measurable in wins and losses and are perhaps best expressed in his own words in acceptance of his assignment today: "I love people and I have been very happy in my work."

THE FIRST EASTER RELAYS

By Fran Errota (Prep Co-Editor, Track and Field News)

Many of the fine young athletes competing here today have been publicized as the finest in Northern California when actually they rank with the best in the nation.

One of these is Dixon Farmer, the all-around ace from Miramonte High School in Orinda. Farmer chalked up the third best effort of all time for a high school boy in the decathlon as well as stenciling his name last season on the national honor roll in the 440, low hurdles, broad jump and hop-step-jump.

Farmer won the state title in the 440 (48.6) and was second in the low hurdles (19.0) in 1958. Thus far this year he has run the 880 in 1:57.1, the 440 in 50.4, and the low barriers in 19.8. He will be much in evidence today in a number of events.

Though Farmer is the star shining brightest in today's constellation, don't take your eyes off a tremendous group of distance runners developed through an outstanding fall cross country program.

Emphasis today is on relay events and the national record most likely to fall is the 4-man 4-mile mark of 18:17.7 set in 1956 by a foursome from Grossmont (Calif.) High School. Palo Alto is capable of going well under 18 minutes by running their great George Linn (4:21.0), Mike Chilton (4:22.4), Mike Lehner (4:29.1) and Ric Brady (4:37.5).

The Great Central Valley promises to send a fast troupe in the form of a Fresno High School troupe in the two-mile relay. Highly regarded boys on this team are Eddie Hamlin, Valley cross country king who ran 4:28.8 in the mile in 1958, and Dick Woods.

Carlmont is one of the strong teams entered in the distance medley. The Scots will run a team consisting of Al McCain (52.3 in 440), Todd Ragsdale (2:01 in 880), Marion Haley (3:30 in 1320) and Jim Reams (4:33 in mile).

Los Altos will be a threat in any baton event it enters. The Knights have two standouts in miler Dave Boore (4:25.6) and half miler Robin Ruble (1:59.1). Both boys are juniors capable of doing much better and who probably will in tough competition. Serra of San Mateo also promises to make a good showing with Bill Yaley in the mile (4:23.0) and Steve Kelly, an ever-improving half-miler.

Competition is scheduled in all of the regular field events plus the 1000yard dash, high hurdles, and a special two-mile race.

Among the top entrants in the field events are discus tossers Dave Weil of Las Lomas, Ron Snidow of San Rafael, Barry Rothman of Capuchino, Doug Schoenwetter of Fremont in Sunnyvale, Dave Nickel and Steve Barnett, Washington in Fremont.

High jump talent will be headed by Alameda's Steve Carnahan who has done 6-3 $\frac{1}{2}$ already, plus Camden's Lynn Gold and Cubberley's Mike Nichols who have done 6-2 . Phil White of Carmel with a practice effort of 13-3 heads the pole vault field. Among a number of fine broad jumpers are Camden's Pete Dana at 22-5, and Palo Alto's John Pastenicks and Farmer who represented the North Coast Section in the state meet last year. Turlock terrors Mike Parker and Bob Stiles, both over 55-0, loom as the top shot putters.

We hope you enjoy the meet and will attend the many top events scheduled in the bay area during the remainder of the season.
