SPAL B, C Track:

Tribe, Trojans Capture Crowns

SAN MATEO — Sequoia and Ravenswood high schools easily won lightweight track crowns at the College of San Mateo Saturday in the SPAL Track and Field Championships.

Ravenswood captured seven of 16 first places to take the B championship, while Sequoia grabbed three firsts and plenty other finishers to win the C crown.

The Trojans' Cezar Oravillo set a B league record in the 70 high hurdles (9.3), won the high jump at 6-0 and ran on the winning mile relay team. Teammate Cedric Thomas came through with an equally impressive performance in winning the 100, 220 and running on the winning 440 relay team.

Ravenswood's brother first place was won by James Shirley, who captured the 440 in 50:7 — a faster time than the varsity winner.

San Carlos' Randy Lawson repeated his exciting Sequoia District Class B 880 win over Ravenswood's David Hill by tipping him by one-tenth of a second Saturday in 1:59.3.
