Leigh Editing Track Script?

Last year Leigh's track team lost the West Valley League dual meet championship because of losses to Saratoga and Westmont and both meets went down to the last event — the mile relay.

A similar possibility exists today when Westmont visits the Longhorns in a 3 p.m. showdown for the league title.

"Last year both big meets went down to the wire in the mile relay and we lost them both," said Leigh coach Homer Latimer. "It's likely the same will happen against Westmont this year, but maybe the outcome will be different."

In other prep track meets today, Cupertino, Homestead, Sunnyvale, Fremont, Lynbrook and Monta Vista collide in the second annual Cureton Relays at 7 p.m. on the Fremont track. The Santa Clara city championship will be decided in a 3 p.m.

battle at Buchser with Santa Clara, Buchser, Peterson and Wilcox entered.

Cupertino, led by Jeff Fowler, Craig Conway, Cardin Carmack, Boris Scalier and Tom Davenport, is favored in the Cureton Relays while Wilcox, behind the sprinting of Ed Bryant, is the Santa Clara pick.

Tabbing a favorite in the Westmont - Leigh titanic isn't difficult, according to Latimer. "We have to be rated as the underdog," Latimer maintained. "Westmont has been stronger throughout the year."

Westmont coach Bill Campbell concurs. "The meet could go right down to the mile relay. If the kids do the job and there's no big upsets, that we'll beat 'em."

Leigh's Rick Miller is the key to the outcome even though Latimer believes seconds and third will decide the team winner.

Miller, who can enter three events plus a relay, is a possible participant in the 220-

440, 880, long and triple jumps and low hurdles. "Rick will anchor the mile relay but other than that I won't say what he'll do until right before the meet," Latimer said.

Since the mile relay might produce the winner, Miller will anchor the four-lap event while Randy Carlson will run the final leg for Westmont.

Leigh, led by versatile Rick Miller, posted a 74½-63½ West Valley League track victory over Campbell Wednesday on the loser's oval to remain undefeated in dual met this season.
