team title over Cupertino and Los Altos.

And Woodside, led by hurdler-triple jumper Myrt Easlev and sprinter Robert Sweet, has a strong chance for the fresh-soph crown.

The two-mile should be the day's "class" event in Region II. Gunn's Gordon MacMit-chell (9:10.6) will battle Los Altos' Jeff Norton (9:11.0), San Carlos soph Mitch Kingery (9:14.5) and Cubberley's Stacy Geiken (9:18.9) in a race involving four of the CCS all-time 10.

Along with MacMitchell, Kingery and Geiken (who'll all probably qualify in the mile too), other sure CCS bets are Palo Alto hurdler Carl Florant (section leader 13.9 and 19.2) and Gunn's Steve Crowley in the mile (4:22.3) and 880 (1:55.2).

The list includes Ravenswood's James Ragland in the sprints (10.0 and 22.8), Carlmont's Jack Lennen in the pole vault (14-1½), San Carlos' Matt Yeo in the two-mile (9:27.0) and Gunn's William Watis in the hurdles (14.2 and 19.4).

M-A's Don MacKenzie, top SPAL quarter miler at 50.9 with San Carlos' Dennis Murphy, is out with an infected foot. Murphy has an outside shot, along with the likes of M-A's Carl John (hurdles), Woodside's Bob Abbott (weights), SC's Kevin Whitney (long jump) and Gunn's John Littleboy (high jump).

Among the top SCVAL attractions are Cupertino's Mark Thorn (23-7 long jump) and Kevin McCarthy (49-4 triple jump) and Buchser's Larry Hintz (15-6½ pole vault).

The following are the best S.P.A.L. track and field marks to date:

The classiest two-mile field ever assembled for one race in the Central Coast Section highlights today's Region II track meet between South Peninsula and Santa Clara Valley league athletes at College of San Mateo.

Late-morning risers still have plenty of time to catch the action. Trials are set for 9 a.m. and finals at noon.

Though SPAL athletes are expected to suffer badly against their SCVAL competition this year, three two-milers should carry SPAL banners high — Gunn's Gordon MacMitchell (9:10.6), San Carlos' Mitch Kingery (9:14.5) and Cubberley's Stacy Geiken (9:18.9).

Add Los Altos' Jeff Norton (9:11.0), and four of the top 10 all-time CCS two-milers are in the field for what could be a record race if the weather cooperates.

First five finishers in both varsity and frosh-soph divisions qualify for next Friday night's CCS finals at San Jose City College.

The SPAL figures to average 1½ to two qualifying berths per event.

In other action today, the Region I finals matching the Mid, North and West Catholic leagues are set for 9 a.m. trials and noon finals at Serra-monte High in Daly City, and the Region IV meet, including Menlo School athletes, for 10 a.m. at Hartnell College in Salinas.

SPAL runners rule distances, frosh-soph

The South Peninsula Athletic League dominated the distance runs in the varsity division while Woodside High "Easley" captured the frosh-soph championship at the Region II track and field championships Saturday at College of San Mateo.

While strong winds and bad track conditions ruined any chance of good times, the SPAL managed seven of 16 first places in the varsity and 12 of 16 in the frosh-soph division against the powerful Santa Clara Valley Athletic League.

The SCVAL, behind Cupertino's 32½ and Los Altos' 31 points, blitzed the SPAL in the varsity division 173-102, while Woodside racked up six first places to take the frosh-soph crown and give the SPAL a 142½-111½ win over the SCVAL.

The SPAL took eight of 10 qualifying spots in the mile and two mile with Gunn's Gordon MacMitchell leading four SPALers into Friday's Central Coast Section finals at San Jose CC with 9:23.7 two mile win. Teammate Steve Crowley "breezed" to a 4:25.2 mile to lead another quartet of SPAL cindermen into the final test before the state meet in Woodland.

San Carlos' Mitch Kingery finished second in the two mile (9:25.6), while Cubberley's Stacy Geiken was third and the Dons' Matt Yeo fifth. In the mile, MacMitchell was second, teammate Arnie Nelson was third and Geiken fourth.

But the most dominating force in the meet was Woodside's frosh-soph, and particularly Wildcat sophomore Myrt Easley. Easley anchored the winning 440-yard relay team, won the 70 high hurdles and 180 lows and finished second in the triple jump behind San Carlos' Greg Malveaux.

Ravenswood's James Ragland and Palo Alto's Carl Florant topped MacMitchell with a pair of varsity wins in the sprints and hurdles, while Carlmont's Jack Lennen won the pole vault for the final SPAL first place.

Ragland, who was consistently unbeatable in the dual meet season, won the 100 (10.4) and the 220 (23.4), while Florant easily won the high hurdles in 14.4 and the 180 lows in 20.2 more than a second off his seasonal best.

Carlmont's Lennen, who qualified for last year's state meet, advanced to the CCS in his speciality with a vault of 14-0 to beat Buchser's Larry Hintz, who had cleared 15-0 in the SCVAL finals last week.

Tom Dixon of Sequoia qualified fifth in the vault at 13-0 while fellow Cherokee Eddie Oravillo was a surprising fourth in the 100. Pete Butler of San Carlos was third in the 100 and Sequoia's Marlon Murphy was third in the 220.

Other SPAL come-thoughts included M-A's Larry Noble's season best 51.5 for fourth in the 440, Carlmont's Bruce Sayre's fourth in the 880 in 2:01.6, M-A's Carl Johnk's third in the high hurdles and fourth in lows, Sequoia's fourth in the mile relay and M-A's third in the mile relay and M-A's third in the 440 relay.

In field events, Mark Rockwood of San Carlos was a surprising fifth in the shot at 52-7¼, a personal improvement of one foot, seven inches; Woodside's Bob Abbott threw a season best 160-10 to finish fourth in the discus, and Kevin Whitney of SC was a stunning second in the long jump at 19-10.

Gunn hurdler Willie Watts, second best in the SPAL to Florant, failed to show for the meet, while co-favorite Jeff Norton of Los Altos scratched from the two-mile.

Ravenswood's Charles Jones was a double winner in frosh-soph competition, running an excellent 51.0 quarter and also taking the 880. Aaron Brisbane of Carlmont won the long jump and teammate Larry Wright took the high jump.

Woodside, which scored 61 points to runnerup Carlmont's 31, will be one of the favorites in the CCS frosh-soph championships Friday, the season closer for the underclassmen.
