

Fast District track prelims

Perhaps the quickest qualifying meet in history was held yesterday for Friday night's Sequoia District track finals at Sequoia High.

Only three varsity track events—the 100, 220 and 440—could not be completely seeded. Trials weren't needed in the high jump or pole vault either.

Woodside's Bob Abbott showed the shot put a season best 53-11 $\frac{1}{4}$  to take a commanding lead and also paced discus qualifiers at 147-5. Marks in the weights and triple and long jumps carry over to the finals.

Woodside sophomore Myrt Easley triple jumped an SPAL season best 45-9 to pace junior varsity qualifying, while San Carlos got an outstanding 41-5 $\frac{1}{2}$  freshman triple jump by Paul Buckley.

The freshman pole vault final—held yesterday to speed up Friday's action—was won at 10-9 by Carlmont's Vince Bradley.

VARSITY
100 — Lennen (C), Burks (M) 10.9, Abbott (W), H. Butler (C), Tingle (R), Williams (R). Seeded — Redland (R), P. Butler (SC).

Kingery eyes district spike marks

Because of the scarcity of standout individuals — with two big exceptions — interest figures to center on San Carlos High's bid to upend rival and defending champion Carlmont tonight for the title of the annual Sequoia District track finals.

Fresh varsity events at Terremere Field begin at 8 o'clock. The meet opens with the freshman two-mile at 7:15 and the junior varsity pole vault at 6, in order to keep the meet running on time.

San Carlos, led by distance stars Mitch Kingery and Matt Yeo, appears to have the horses to overcome Carlmont's fairly deep but starless unit.

Kingery, only a sophomore, appears to be two of just three threats to meet records. He'll go after Carl Cattarin's 9:28.8 two-mile mark and Steve Miller's 4:19.4 mile standard, both for Carlmont last year.

Kingery has a great shot in the two-mile — his best is 9:16.9, third in the Central Coast Section — but his mile topper is 4:23.9.

It would be a historic double regardless of the records, because distance runners were forbidden to double up before this season.

The other standard in jeopardy also was set last year by a Scot — Jim Katches' 13-9 pole vault — and a Scot may break it if Jack Lennen can approach his 14-1 $\frac{1}{2}$  season best. Lennen is Carlmont's only real star.

Junior Carl Johnk of Menlo-Atherton is the favorite in both hurdles with bests of 15.1 and 20.0, while Carlmont's Bruce Sayre (1:59.2) is the clear pick of the 880 field.

The sprints should be the most competitive events. It'll be Ravenswood's James Ragland vs. San Carlos' Pete Butler in the 100; M-A's Don MacKenzie, Sequoia's Marlon Murphy and Butler in the 220 and MacKenzie, Marlon Murphy, SC's Dennis Murphy and M-A's Larry Noble in the 440. Nobody in the field is particularly outstanding.

The discus is wide open, but the shot seemingly belongs to Woodside's Bob Abbott, whose 53-11 $\frac{1}{4}$  carry-over qualifying mark led the field by more than two feet.

Woodside school record holder Jim Orr (6-5) is favored in the high jump, while San Carlos soph Greg Malveaux (45-0) is tops in the triple jump, with Woodside's Myrt Easley (45-9) going in junior varsity competition.

Carlmont's Mike Mullins and SC's Kevin Whitney are the class of the long jump field.

Dons dethrone Scots for District oval honors

By ED JACOBOWSKY
Tribune Sports Editor

The weatherman, who never looks too kindly on the Sequoia High School District Championship Track Meet, was in his usual form last night, but he didn't put a damper on San Carlos' bid to upend defending champion Carlmont.

Led by the double distance one-two punch of Mitch Kingery and Matt Yeo, the Dons outscored the Carlmont Scots 92-81, with Menlo-Atherton a distant third with 61 points at Sequoia High's Terremere Field.

Kingery and Yeo led the field to the finish in both the two-mile (a meet record 9:20 for sophomore Kingery) and mile (Mitch won in an easy 4:31.9), with the Dons also piling up points heavily in the pole vault (second through fourth).

In the mile, only a third place finish by Carlmont's Dana Carvey kept San Carlos from sweeping all places in what long has been the Scots' greatest strength.

Kingery wound up named the meet's outstanding track performer with Woodside's Bob Abbott taking field event honors for his weight double (53-11 $\frac{3}{4}$  shot, 152-5 $\frac{1}{2}$  discus).

For excitement, however, the fans had to look away from San Carlos, as Kingery's domination was so complete the only thing he was racing was the stopwatch.

The quarter mile and the mile relay perhaps were the greatest shows for the frozen spectators (of which there were several hundred), with M-A's Don MacKenzie providing the thrills in each case.

He came from well back to pass Sequoia's fading Marlon Murphy off the final curve in the quarter, pulling away for a 50.9 clocking. Murphy dropped to fourth behind two other fast-closing finishers, San Carlos's Dennis Murphy (life best 51.4) and M-A's Larry Noble (a 52.1 that equalled Marlon's time).

Marlon Murphy later redeemed himself by winning the 220 in 22.9, which might have been awfully close to the pace that killed him off earlier.

It was MacKenzie again in the meet's curtain closer, as he rallied from a distant third on the anchor lap of the mile relay to give the Bears a sweep of the relays, clocking 49.5 for his lap.

Carlmont's Bruce Sayre came within two-tenths of his 880 best when he broke up a tight race on the second backstretch to win in 1:59.4.

M-A produced the meet's third double winner in junior Carl Johnk, who took the 120 high hurdles in 14.9 and the 180 lows in 20.5. Nobody was close in either.

Another winner by a wide margin was Ravenswood's James Ragland, who shot to the front at the start in the 100 and won by close to five yards in 10 seconds flat.

Carlmont's Jack Lennen won the pole vault as expected at 13-0, but the San Carlos trio of Jim Draper (12-6), Roger Hill (12-6) and Scott McBain (12-0) took the next three places in an important come-through.

Woodside won both the junior varsity and the frosh division, scoring 120 points to runnerup Sequoia's 64 in the JV class and nudging Carlmont 84-80 in the frosh.
