

Scot sprinter returns

4/9/75

Carlmont High's track team welcomed back sprinter Brent Nance and nobody could be sadder than Gunn High after a makeup SPAL track and field meet at Carlmont yesterday.

Nance, who has not run this year before yesterday, due to eligibility problems, won the 100, 220 opened up the winning sprint relay team and was a member of the victorious Scot mile relay quartet in a 116-20 win over Gunn.

Jerry Emory won the two-mile for the Titans in an outstanding mark of 9:28.0, but his teammates could muster only one other first place while soundly getting drubbed by the depthful Scots.

Carlmont again excelled in the high jump where for the first time in history of that event it had three jumpers over 6-2 led by Jeff Leach who jumped 6-5 for

Cougars quit

Cubberley High track coach Leon Eymil announced yesterday the school would end its participation in SPAL track immediately, forfeiting its remaining meets.

The decision was made due to a number of factors, including an extremely small turnout of participants.

the third best mark in the Scot record books.

Carlmont will have things a little tougher Saturday morning when it entertains powerhouses Los Altos, Cupertino, St. Ignatius, El Cerrito and Leigh in the annual Belmont Rotary-sponsored Carlmont Invitationa..

In other prep action yesterday, Matt Barger won both sprints as Menlo School trounced James Ranch 88½-47½.
