

Women runners qualify for nationals

SALEM — Boosted by freshman Ellen Schmidt's 2:13.1 anchor leg, Oregon's two-mile relay qualified for the national AIAW meet as the Ducks won the Oregon-California Invitational track meet at Willamette University Saturday. (4-9-77)

Katy Mountain (2:24.7), Debbie Roth (2:22), Robin Baker (2:20) and Schmidt clocked 9:20.3 for the two-mile relay, breaking the school record by over a second, and easily meeting the 9:33.0 national qualifying standard.

Dawna Rose won the 100 yard dash in 11.54 while teammate Rose Ann Klingerman leaned for third in a personal best time of 11.7. Rose returned to run 57.1 for her leg on the winning mile relay, her best time by 1.1 seconds for that distance, while her sister, Georgene, tied for first in the 400 meter hurdles at 67.5 in her first attempt at that event.

Carol Amaral, debuting as a quarter miler, anchored the mile relay with a 58.8 leg.

Kim Spir and Sandy Trowbridge picked up first and second places in the 880. Spir's time was 2:19 while Trowbridge ran a lifetime best of 2:19.4.

Freshman Kathy Picknell upset teammate Mary Stevenson in the discus, with the pair taking one-two in that event. Picknell's winning toss was 137-10 while Stevenson's 128-3 was nearly 20 feet off her season's best.
