For those of you who are reading it for the first time, EASTERN TRACK attempts to cover collegiate track in the area as fully as possible. Highlights of AAU, women's, and H.S. competition are also included. Fill out the attached subscription form if you wish to receive future issues.

The center of attraction this weekend will be Princeton's Jadwin Gym, where the IC4A Championships will be held. Again it will be a battle between the runners of Villanova and the field event men from Maryland. Whatever inroads each school can make against the other's strength could be the deciding factor. Following are the results of conference meets involving IC4A members.

I had some printing problems on page 44. Most copies are OK, but for those that can't make out the lead-in to the performers list, it reads: TOP COLLEGE PERFORMERS (All IC4A(+) members, plus other Eastern schools) F=frosh, So=soph, J=junior, Sr=senior. Apparently Richmond is not yet a member of the IC4A.*= IC4A, NCAA qualifying Standards.

The following is one man's opinion(mine)of how each event inthe IC4A meet might turn out.A lot of guess-work was involved in the running events as many of the athletes might not run in the events I8ve got them listed for.Now that I've made my excuses,here goes:
