LSC TRACK AND FIELD LEADERS

SAN MARCOS, Tex.-- Defending champion Angelo State University boasts five individual leaders and the best mile relay team in the first listing of the Lone Star Conference's top track and field marks.

Angelo's Ronnie Gainey is the only double leader with bests of 14.6 in the 120 high hurdles and 53.4 in the 440 intermediate hurdles. Gainey is the LSC champion in both events.

Other Angelo leaders are Wylie Turner in the 220 (21.4), Kevin Miller in the 880 (1:53.7) and freshman David Bauer in the three-mile (14:30.9). Gainey leads the Ram mile relay team which paces the LSC with a 3:17.1.

Abilene Christian University, runnerup to ASU last year, has the top 440 relay team, three other top marks and Wildcat Bill Cork is tied with Southwest Texas State's David Cook for the best time in the 100 at 9.5w.

The Wildcats have a best of 41.1 in the sprint relay and their other leaders are Jim Reeves in the mile (4:14.8), Kevin Keeling in the high jump (6-9) and Carl Williams in the long jump (25-3w).

SWT's Ed Price is the 440 leader with a 48.2 and his teammate, Bruce King, tops the pole vaulters with a 15-6 best.

Sam Houston State also has two leaders in Marcus Barefield in the triple jump (45-3) and Stanley Blinka in the discus (169-4).

Howard Payne's Terry Cosby is the shot put leader with a toss of 55-8 3/4 and Dan Willingham, also of HPU, leads the javelin chart with a throw of 209-3.

Angelo State and Abilene Christian will be in the Texas Tech Relays in Lubbock this week, while the rest of the LSC teams will be in Nacogdoches for the S.F.Austin Relays.
