NOTES: Second Day started at 8:05 am and finished at 7:52 pm for 11 hours and 47 minutes. The pole vault with 25 vaulters started at 10:00 am, broke for second flight warmups at 11:45 for 35 minutes, and continued until 6:10 pm: 7 hours, 35 minutes. A total of 212 vaults were taken with Etherton taking the most, 15, and the winner, Arnold, taking 12. Lester set a new NJCAA decathlon javelin record of 62.84/206-2. Rice in second place had two throws out of bounds and a foul to earn zero points in the discus and withdrew. Johansson led threw the first day and the first two events of the second day. Johnson took the lead after the pole vault, lost some of the lead on the javelin and went into the 1500 leading by 18 points. Johansson needs to defeat Johnson by at least 2½ seconds to win the meet, but was outsprinted to the tape.
