

Pomona loses

Field events give Aztecs win

by Ian Johnson
Staff Writer

Davenport, fresh from competition in the Jack-in-the-Box

Indoor Games Friday night in the Sports Arena.

The SDSU Track team won its opening dual meet of the year Saturday with an 87-67 triumph over Cal Poly Pomona on Choc Sportsman Oval.

Strong performances in the field events led the way for the Aztecs, who finished the meet splitting the 10 track events.

First place victories by Joe Briski in the hammer, Mike Packer in the javelin, Jean Beaudry in the shot put, Mark Lizotte in the pole vault and Sam Alexander in the discus throw gave the Aztecs a 5-3 edge over Cal Poly in first place finishes in field events.

Other Aztec victories included Tom Smith's win in the mile run with Paul Neveu finishing a close second. Arthur Richardson won the 120-yard high hurdles, Jose Madruga the 440-yard dash and Rhan Sheffield the 440-yard intermediate hurdles.

A special guest at the meet was world class hurdler Willie

aztec action

TODAY

Tennis — vs. Utah, here, 2:30 p.m.

Golf — vs. UC San Diego, Carlton Oaks Country Club, 1 p.m.

TOMORROW

Tennis — vs. Colorado, here, 2:30 p.m.

IN THE LONGEST OF THE track events, SDSU swept the first three places in the two-mile against Cal Poly Pomona Saturday afternoon. Steve Acuff, at left, won the race with Hank Lawson and Bill St. John finishing third and second respectively. The Aztecs won their first meet of the season 87 to 67. Photo by Brad Mosher.