7 Vols Get NCAA Qualifying Marks in All-Comers Action

Seven Tennessee trackmen met NCAA qualifying requirements with outstanding marks in the sixth annual Smoky Mountain All-Comers meet Friday at UT's Tom Black Track.

Three Vols bettered the 5000-meter standard of 14:15. David Lapp won at 14:07.1 with Sal Vega finishing second (14:13.2) and George Watts third (14:13.4). The race was continued for four miles and Watts led the pack.

Mike Barlow logged an NCAA qualifying time of 51.3 as he took the 400-meter intermediate hurdles. John Wright made it in the 3000-meter steeplechase (8:44.5), Ronnie Harris in the 200-meter dash (20.8) and Bruce Wodder in the pole vault (16-6). All were winners.

Harris was a double victor in individual competition, taking the 400-meter dash in 46.9 as well as the 200. Ronnie also ran on the Vols' first-place 440-yard relay unit.

UT winners also included Sam James, 800 meters; Paul McMahan, discus; Russell Fritts, long jump; Steve Darcus, high hurdles; Ricci Gardner, 100 dash; Phil Olsen, javelin, and Paul Jordan, triple jump.

Mark Branch, Knoxville Track Club, was first in the high jump.
