SAN MATEO — Paced by the efforts of Wendy Brown and LaShun Peters, Woodside High's girls' team won the team title in the Central Coast Section Region I track meet Friday at College of San Mateo.

The Wildcats, who got five first places between Brown and Peters, totaled 87 points to edge out Menlo-Atherton, which had 72. Mills was a distant third with 50. As expected, the West Catholic Athletic League dominated the boys' race. St. Ignatius won with 66, Menlo-Atherton was a creditable second with 51, St. Francis third with 42 and Bellarmine fourth with 41.

After having won the long jump and high jump earlier in the week, Brown had just two events left Friday: the triple jump and the 100-meter low hurdles.

Brown won the triple jump at 41-10, with teammate Tina Robinson second at 36-4½.

Brown had dealt Maxie her first loss in a high school race this season in the Peninsula Athletic League finals last week. But this time it was Maxie's turn to get back at Brown.

Maxie got a very good start and was just a nose ahead in the beginning. It continued that way the whole race. Maxie just did nip Brown at the tape. Maxie clocked a 13.7 and Brown 13.8, both superb times.

"I wasn't worried that much about my time. I just wanted to win," said Maxie. "My starts have been getting better this season, and I'm just trying to remember what I do well each time."

Maxie is now off to run in the prestigious Pepsi Invitational at UCLA on Sunday. She'll be running the 400-meter intermediate hurdles against open competition, and will "try and finish in the top three."

Brown was pleased with her three wins, but feels she can do a lot better.

"My triple jump was good, but not great. It's good for that pit. Next week (at San Jose City College) I'll be jumping in a great pit, maybe a world record pit for me."

"It's also a good place to high jump. I think I can jump 6-3 next week, and maybe try 6-4. I hope to triple jump maybe 44 feet and long jump 21 feet next week," she said.

Peters also did yeoman work for the Wildcats, who are coached by Jim Luttrell and Susie Wilson. Peters won the 100 (12.2) and the 200 (25.3) without being pressed in either event.

teammate Clarisa Peer won the event.

Daniels came back to finish second in the 200 to Peters and ran a superb 57.7 anchor leg on the winning 1600-meter relay team for the Bears.

There were several disqualifications early in the meet, but none more unfortunate than that of Angie Daniels of Menlo-Atherton in the 400 meters. She was the favorite, and just missed at 7-0¼.

Mills High's Jeff Novitsky wound up second in the high jump at 6-8. Considering he spent the year on the frosh-soph squad at Mills, that's a fine accomplishment. St. Ignatius' Steve Smith won at 6-10, and just missed at 7-0¼.

Capuchino's Elliot Diaz won the pole vault with a season-best of 14-7. He made several tries at 15 feet, but none were close. After Diaz started his first run at 14-7, the sprinklers came on at CSM. After garbage cans were put over them to keep from drenching the pole vault area, Diaz resumed, and cleared 14-7.

Guisto said he hopes to go all-out in next week's Section meet in the two mile, then evaluate whether to go for the mile as well.

King won both hurdles races in 15.0 and 39.2. King's time in the 300-meter intermediate would have been better, but he missed his steps coming into the next to last hurdle. King almost had to come to a complete stop to get over the hurdle. He just managed to hold off Greg Roberts of Half Moon Bay.

Capuchino's Elliot Diaz won the pole vault with a season-best of 14-7. He made several tries at 15 feet, but none were close. After Diaz started his first run at 14-7, the sprinklers came on at CSM. Peters also ran a leg on both of Woodside's relay teams, which finished second in the 400-meter (50.4) and went unplaced in the 1600-meter.

San Mateo's Matt Guisto and Menlo-Atherton's Mike King were the top stars in the boys' meet.

Guisto doubled in the distance races, winning the two mile in a meet-record 9:17.3 (by more than 13 seconds) and the mile in 4:20.6.

"I went out way too fast in the two mile (a 4:28 first mile) and that threw me way out of balance. My throat was dry, and I just tried to run comfortably," he said.

"I felt a little tired in the mile, and tried to just hold out. Coming around the last turn, when Mills' (Chris) Becerra started to catch me, I started to kick and started to pull away from his shadow that I could see on the track."

Woodside High's Wendy Brown (left) and Mills' Leslie Maxie keep pace in a battle of national-caliber athletes in the 100-meter low hurdles Friday at College of San Mateo. Maxie won the Central Coast Section Region I title by a tenth of a second in 13.7, avenging last week's loss to Brown — Maxie's only prep loss this season.

Mills star, Brown break meet record in hurdles

Since Mills High School's Leslie Maxie and Woodside's Wendy Brown are among the best girls' athletes in the state, it was only fitting that they opposed each other in at least one event in Friday's Region I track finals at the College of San Mateo.

That event was the 100-meter hurdles.

Both runners got off to an adequate start and were running side by side most of the way. The most minute mistake by either runner would have meant defeat. At the end, Maxie won, although both runners were timed in a 1984 Central Coast Section-best and meet-record 13.7 seconds.

Maxie used a loss to Brown the previous week to help motivate her for Friday's race.

"It wasn't the fact she beat me in last week's Peninsula Athletic League finals)," Maxie said. "I think that's natural when you have somebody with her talent. It was the little thing she did with her hands at the tape that got me motivated.

Region I track

"I wanted to show that you could win a race and be a lady about it. I'm sure at the time she did it, she wasn't thinking about it. I wanted to keep thinking about it."

After beating Maxie in the 100 hurdles last week at CSM, Brown raised her arms in the air and looked skyward in jubilation. It was a gesture of happiness after her first-ever hurdles victory over Maxie.

"We're actually friends," Maxie said. "It's only a rivalry when you make it that way. I don't think of it that way because you want to deal with people outside of track, but it's hard when you're always reading about us."

The day was far from a total loss for Brown, however. She won the triple jump (she already had won the long jump and high jump Wednesday) to help Woodside take the girls' team title, 87-72, over Menlo-Atherton.

Maxie also won the 330 hurdles in a meet-record 41.5 and gave the Vikings a substantial lead in the 1,600 relay. Mills finished second in that race as M-A came back to win. St. Ignatius won the boys' title with 66 points to 51 for M-A. St. Francis was third with 43 points.

Brown won the triple jump at 41-10½, beating teammate Tina Robinson, who went 36-4½. Brown set meet records in both the triple jump and long jump.

"That's pretty good, but it's not great," Brown said. "I like the pit better at San Jose (City College, the site of the CCS meet next Friday). I want to go 45 in the triple jump there, 21 in the long jump and 6-3 in the high jump. I know I can do 6-3. I also want to try 6-4. San Jose is a world-record place for me."

M-A freshman Angie Daniels, who was disqualified in the 400 but placed second in the 200, came back with a tremendous effort as the anchor of the Bears' winning 1,600 relay team. Her split was 59.3, and she overcame a 50-yard deficit. Maxie's split for Mills, on the second leg, was 54.5.

Sophomore LaShun Peters won the 100 (tying a meet record at 12.2) and 200 for Woodside, giving the Wildcats a total of five firsts. Woodside also had four seconds.

M-A was paced by Daniels, Clarissa Peer, Winnie Burns and Sheila Farris. Peer won the 400, was third in the 200 and ran in the 1,600 relay. Burns won the 800, took fourth in the 330 hurdles and ran in the 1,600 relay (Meg Williams also ran in the relay). Farris took the shot put Wednesday.

Mike King was a big reason M-A's boys finished a strong second. King won both hurdles, running 39.2 in the intermediates.

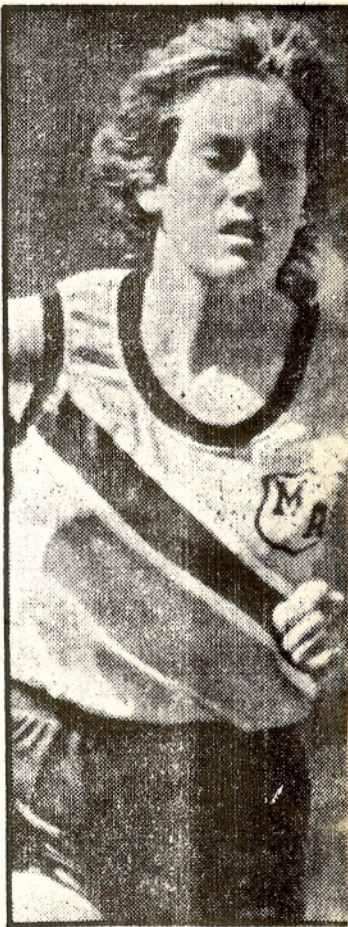

"My steps were all off today," King said. "I think I could go for the low 38s in the CCS. Speed is my strongest point, but we have people who can run faster in the sprints, and the hurdles turned out to be my best event."

Roland Anderson, a sophomore, won the shot put at 50-6 and Charles Smith tied for second in the 100 to help the Bears' cause.

San Mateo's Matt Giusto won the two-mile in a meet-record 9:17.3 and then took the mile in 4:20.6.

"I was a little tired after the two-mile race," said Giusto, who will attend the University of Arizona. "I didn't feel too well in the race and my throat was dry. I went too fast on the first mile, and that put me off balance for the rest of the race. I tried to relax and not push too hard."

St. Francis' Michael Davidson won the 400 and anchored the winning 400 and 1,600 relay teams.
