Bray wins both hurdles, high jump in SCVAL track finals

By Rick Eymers
Special to the Times Tribune

Los Altos High School's Rachael Bray successfully defended her titles in the 100-meter hurdles and the high jump in the Santa Clara Valley Athletic League track finals Friday at Foothill College.

Bray also won the 300 hurdles and finished second in the girls' long jump.

However, Palo Alto's girls unofficially scored 119 points to 117 for Gunn, giving the Vikings the league title. Los Altos and Gunn finished one-two in the boys' meet, but the combination of Gunn's 6-0 dual-meet record and its runner-up performance Friday enabled the Titans to capture the title under the league's point system.

Bray had the best long jump (17-6) in the SCVAL trials, but scratched on her first three attempts Friday.

She also finishes second in long jump — Fortman a triple winner

"It was windy, and I didn't have enough time to get my steps down," Bray said. "I was too pumped up and kept moving my mark back, but not far enough."

Bray temporarily was eliminated from the long-jump competition because of her three scratches. She did take a fourth attempt, though, and went 16-6.

According to SCVAL rules, each jumper was given three trial attempts. Afterward, the top seven competitors were to reverse order and take three additional jumps as finals. One jumper did not show up Friday, so the field automatically was trimmed to seven jumpers. The event director then declared each contestant to have six jumps, period. Because the order never was reversed after the first three jumps, it was ruled that the finals would include all six jumps. Bray's fourth attempt, 16-6, was good enough to give her second place behind Palo Alto sophomore Quincy Dedner.

"I worried about being out of the long jump at the time," Bray said. "I went off on my own and decided there was nothing I could do about it and that it didn't matter. I concentrated on the 300 hurdles."

Bray won the latter event in 46.25 seconds. Her winning mark in the high jump was 5-6 and her time in the 100 hurdles was 15.2.

"This is my first year running the 300 hurdles, and I still feel a little inexperienced," Bray said. "Every time I run the race, I find out after that I could have gone faster."

Other multiple winners included Mountain View sophomore Shannon Clark in the two-mile and mile, Gunn's Tanya Bynoe in the 400 and 800 and Palo Alto freshman Laura Van in the 100 and 200. Gunn's Danette Vercher won the discus and placed second in the shot put.

In the boys' meet, Milpitas' Louis Fortman won the 100, 200 and 400 and also ran a leg for the Trojans' winning mile relay team. Los Altos' Tyler Burke won both hurdles and ran a strong anchor to help the Eagles' mile relay team take second.

Santa Clara's Eric Volta won the shot at 56-10 with Los Altos' Jack Mohr placing second. The order was reversed in the discus.

this season and was timed in 48.67, one of the fastest times in the Central Coast Section this year. Gunn's Dave Campbell took second in 50.67 after appearing to tire.

Campbell outdueled Mountain View's Rich Clark in an exciting 800. Clark held the lead for all but the final 200 meters, running a 55.6 split for the first 400. Campbell (1:56.9) was able to overcome Clark (1:57.3) during the final stretch, however.

Clark, however, came back to win the 1,600 in 4:25.28.

Burke's 39.6 in the 300 hurdles was particularly satisfying for the junior because he had to recover this spring from a pulled hip muscle that deprived him of a month of training.
