Palo Alto, Los Altos strong, but Gunn stronger 3-27

Gunn, Palo Alto and Los Altos.

It gets to be a tired old refrain, but it looks like those three teams will be the class of the Santa Clara Valley Athletic League girls track and field race again.

SCVAL GIRLS

two mile at the K-Bell (12:23.8).

1. Gunn — The Titans are led by distance runners Tenaya Soderman and Beth Berghausen, as well as Megan McMahon in the weights. McMahon threw the shot 38-10 last season and had a 37-1 mark at the K-Bell Invitational last Saturday.

"She's a bona fide state meet contender," Gunn weight coach Bob Peters said. "If she makes it, it will be the 12th year in a row we've sent someone to the state in the weight events."

Soderman placed third in the

2. Los Altos — The Eagles are led by distance runners Tracy Shoemaker and Jenny Lemes. Sprinter Jeanine Kirkland and freshman high jumper Amy Chell are also top performers.

"I think we've got a good chance at the league championship," Los Altos coach Alex Paszkeicz said. "But the road goes through Gunn."

3. Palo Alto — The Vikings have been especially strong in recent years. This year, they have a little less quality depth.

Hurdlers Anna Meyers and Ann Lee appear to be the top prospects for the Central Coast Section meet. Coach Paul Jones also has high hopes for his 400 relay team.

4. Milpitas — The Trojan track program is on the upswing. After competing with seven girls last year, Milpitas has 35 this season. Latoya Hardy in the weights, sprinter-jumper Cindy Choi and hurdler-jumper Jennifer Bungo are the top performers.

5. Wilcox — Coach Charles Lighty is enthused about freshman sprinter Rachel Parrish. Clara Palmer in the 800 and Christy Hamm in the triple jump are other top performers.

"We'll try to be .500 (in dual meets) this year," Lighty said. "But the future really looks great."

6. Santa Clara — The Bruins have two good young sprinters in sophomores Tasha Newman and Lilly Salinas. They should team with Lesley Rius and Ronetta Conyers for a good sprint relay team.

Newman is a definite CCS threat in the long jump. Sara Albers and Tawna Johnson give the Bruins strength in the discus.

7. Mountain View — The Spartans will be led by distance runner Janet Roller. Tammy Clark in the sprints and Heather Lynch in the hurdles are also top performers.

Gunn senior Tenaya Soderman is among the best distance runners in the SCVAL.

Gunn strongest in dual meets, but Palo Alto could claim the league finals

In recent years, Los Altos, Palo Alto and Gunn have dominated Santa Clara Valley Athletic League track and field. This year should be no exception.

Los Altos held the upper hand last season, winning all its dual meets, and also took the league and region championships. But with the Eagles hit hard by graduation, Gunn looks like the best dual-meet team in the league, with Palo Alto the possible favorite at the league finals.

Here's the forecast:

1. Gunn — The Titans strength is depth — the ability to score in every event in a dual meet.

SCVAL BOYS

Alex Bynoe is Gunn's individual standout. Fifth in the 400 meters at last year's Central Coast Section meet as a sophomore, Bynoe will be aiming for a top three finish this year and a trip to the state meet. He already has run 1:56.85 in the 800.

Among Gunn's other top performers are German Mendoza in the sprints; Ernie Lee in the distances; Thad Block and Bruce Kember in the hurdles; Chris Peters and Jason Epstein in the weights; Derek Lagerwerff in the high jump; and Damon Ayers in the pole vault.

2. Palo Alto — The Vikings have one of their strongest teams in several years.

"We're loaded," coach Win Belton said. "We're strong across the board."

A strong group of sprinters led by Rob Parsons and Mark Reich has Belton hopeful of a state meet appearance in the mile relay.

An outstanding distance corps is led by Erik McMichael, Rafi Kugler, Gabe Kugler and Alex Reich.

Mike Berkley (hurdles), Gabe

Mont-Reynaud (high jump) and Geoff Moyer are other top performers.

3. Los Altos — The Eagles will be counting on seniors Doug Wright (distances) and Chris Thorson (14-0 pole vault). Coach Alex Paszkeicz is also hopeful about the potential of weightman Dustin Dawson and junior sprinter Mallar Goodrich.

4. Milpitas — The leader is shot putter Jim Younger, who has reached 54 feet.

Sophomore sprinter Jay Mandel leads a sprint relay team that includes, Alan Laneta, Paul Quintero and Blaine Current.

5. Wilcox — Chargers coach Charles Lighty is optimistic about the future of his young team.

Freshman sprinter Shon Lewis is the cause of much of that optimism. Lighty hopes the sprint relay team of Lewis, Steve Pagador, Bobby Young and Rick Houghton will get down in the low 44s or high 43s by the end of the season.

Bill Matis in the 800 and Richard Johnson in the two-mile are other potential standouts.

6. Mountain View — The Spartans' top performers include Chris Czerwinski in the long jump and triple jump, St. Francis transfer Greg Stahler in the pole vault, Kevin Davis in the sprints and Dave Chao in the distances.

7. Santa Clara — The Chargers are in a rebuilding year. The top performer is Cheris Stier, the defending league champion in the 800.

Los Gatos the favorite, but Homestead boasts several solid athletes

Los Gatos High, possessor of tradition, some good quality and a lot of depth, is the favorite for the De Anza Athletic League boys track and field championship.

While no one should give the Wildcats much of a scare at the dual-meet level, Homestead has a shot at giving Los Gatos a run at the league championship meet.

Here is the prognosis:

1. Los Gatos — The Wildcats' depth should prove to make them unchallenged in dual meets. Standouts for coach Willie Harmatz include Rudy Rucker in the mile (4:31.0), Burt Prentice in the shot put (49-4), Andy Chu in the discus, Greg Yap in the 400 and Nick Green in the 800.

2. Homestead — The Mustangs feature miler Matt Ringer, who has gone to the state meet the past two years. And Homestead has come up with a good group of sprinters, clocking 43.51 in the 400 relay at the K-Bell meet last Saturday.

Sean Dawkins, Eteka Huckaby, Mike Shetler and Jay Arnold comprise the sprint relay team. Dawkins ran 10.96, automatically timed, for 100 meters at the K-Bell meet. Arnold also long jumps.

Mike Gleaton in the 400, Craig Smalley in the weights, sophomore DeErik Smith in the high jump, Billy Roy in the triple jump and Eddie Munyak in the two mile give the Mustangs a strong supporting group.

"We'll be better at the league meet than we will in dual meets," Homestead coach Verne Thornburg said.

3. Fremont — Top performers include Cheto Popovic and Hai Tran in the distances; Pat Lum in the high jump; Tom Breschens in the hurdles; Greg Bakken in the 400 and 800; and Dave Watts in the triple jump.

4. Monta Vista — Along with Cupertino, the Matadors are very thin on the varsity level this season. But both have strong frosh-soph teams and should be stronger the next couple of years.

Monta Vista features Nick Dudman and Dom Paszkeicz in the sprints and Chen-Chi Tsai in the discus.

5. Saratoga — The Falcons have Bobby Ridolfo (21-7 in the long jump), Alex Chalmers (52.2 in the 400) and shot putter Tadas Petrys.

6. Cupertino — The Pioneers figure to edge Lynbrook for sixth. They out for fourth, but they have two standouts — Razshawn Miller in the long jump, triple jump and high jump and Marcos Cifuentes in the 800.

Homestead senior Matt Ringer has made two appearances in the mile at the state meet and hopes to win a medal.

Cifuentes, who ran 1:56 last year, is recovering from an Achilles' tendon tear and has yet to run this season, but is expected to be a standout if he does.

7. Lynbrook — Tim Carson, a high jumper who has been clearing 6-4 consistently, is the leader of the Viking pack. Long jumper Jeff Shiya also will help out.

Look for St. Francis to 'rebuild' its way to league championship

Fremont is down a little, leaving Los Gatos and St. Francis to battle it out.

And the battle should be something like last year when St. Francis defeated Los Gatos, 76-70, in the dual meet, and Los Gatos prevailed at the league meet, 122-121.

1. St. Francis — The Lancers, winners of four consecutive Central Coast Section championships, are rebuilding. Of course, a rebuilding year for St. Francis is like a peak year for many schools.

The Lancer sprint relay team of Bridget Marquess, Angie Nurisso, Kelly Donnell and sophomore Nanea Meyer ran a section-best 49.67 at the K-Bell meet last Saturday. Nurisso clocked a section-best 59.14 for 400 meters.

Ann Quinn in the long jump, triple jump and 100 hurdles, Michelle Ruiz in the mile and two mile, Paula Verna in the weights and high jumpers Alison Rossi and Rhonda Herblin give the Lancers strength and depth.

2. Los Gatos — The Wildcats have won 11 consecutive league titles dating to their West Valley Athletic League days.

Los Gatos has outstanding individuals in nearly all events — Tiffany Hackett (sprints), Genevieve Farnady and Lora Weinberg (in the 400), along with Farnady and Heather Graesch (800).

DAAL GIRLS

3. Fremont — The best distance runner in the CCS is Indian senior Beth Bartholomew.

Julia Huff and Erica Nelson provide support in the two-mile and 800, respectively.

4. Saratoga — The Falcons' mile relay team has already run 4:18. Yvonne Lavallee and Lara Hurant are the top quartermilers.

5. Lynbrook — Three standouts are sprinter Cyndi McCloskey, hurdler-long jumper Lisa Collet and Michelle Wagner in the weights.

6. Monta Vista — The Matadors will be led by sophomores Kerri Gabrielson, the defending league champion in the 100 hurdles, and triple jumper Amy Tsau.

7. Cupertino — Behind hurdler Karen Hsu and jumpers Kim McGuigan and Suzy Peters, the Pioneers should score some points.

8. Homestead — Distance runner Cari Olmstead, high jumpers Sylvia Branchle and Ann Travis, sprinter Rebecca Friedenthal, shot putter Kira Kirkland and Sue Parsons in the 400 and 800 are the bright spots.

Quinn means win for St. Francis in likely title meet

FRAN ERROTA / SPECIAL MOUNTAIN VIEW

Ann Quinn allowed none of the nervousness to show as she helped St. Francis High register a 72-55 win over visiting Los Gatos in what likely determined the De Anza Athletic League girls dual meet track championship.

Quinn won the long jump and triple jump and took a second in the 100-meter low hurdles Thursday in "probably her most important contribution to our program," Lancers coach Steve Filios said.

There were other important contributions, especially by Angie Nurisso, who won the 200 and 400 and ran on both winning relays.

"We come to expect heroics from Angie and she certainly did her part," Filios said. "But we really needed the redhead (Quinn) today. She's a senior and it was nice to see her do so well."

Quinn downplayed her role.

"I was nervous because Los Gatos is an outstanding team and it was an important meet," she said. "I think the whole team was caught up in what the meet meant to our season, and I was just one part of that team."

Still, her second-place finish behind Los Gatos double-winner Heidi Brink in the 100 low hurdles was important. And Quinn led an unexpected sweep with a 33-8½ triple jump, giving the Lancers

St. Francis led, 58-55, going into the last two events — the mile relay and long jump. Nurisso's stirring anchor leg (1:01.4) of the 1,600 relay brought St. Francis from eight meters back to victory in 4:12.6.

The Lancers still needed at least a third in the long jump, which had not been completed. Quinn came to the rescue again, leading another sweep at 16-¾.

Los Gatos was not without its good performers. Brink won both hurdles races in impressive fashion, and Genevieve Farnady won the 1,600 and 800 before running a strong third leg of the 1,600 relay.

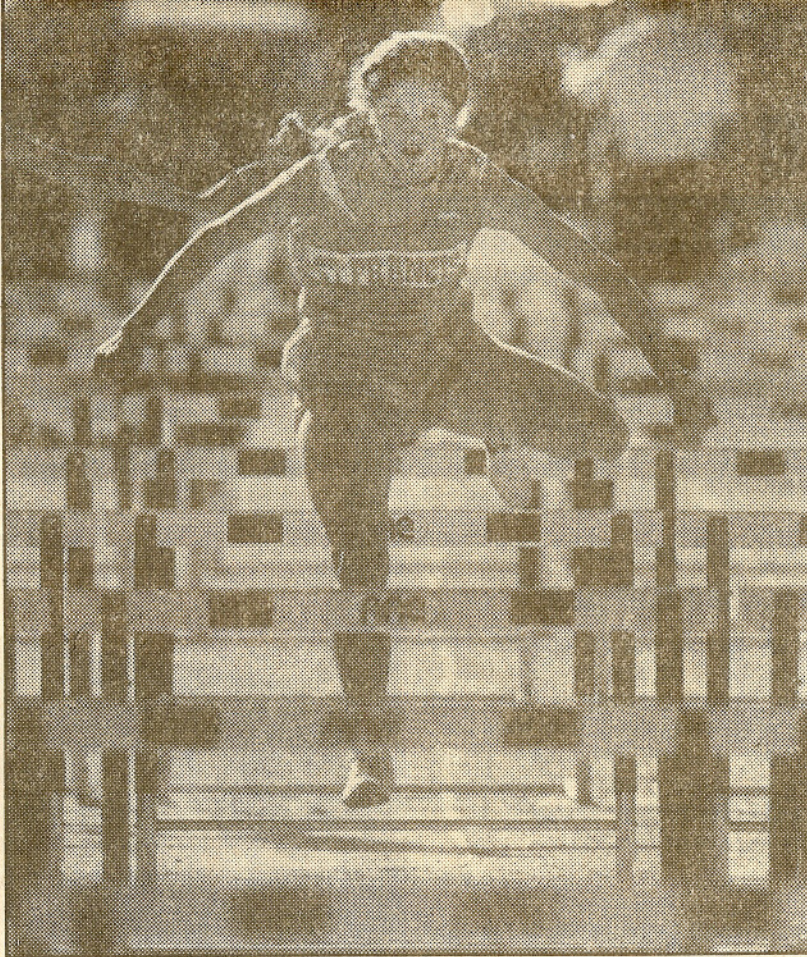

Fremont 95, Monta Vista 31

Beth Bartholomew won three events, including her first open 440 of the season in 1:02.60. The Fremont senior also took the mile (5:35.6) and the two-mile (12:02).

Rachel Harford won the discus in a personal best 111-2 and the shot for Fremont (1-1), which lost to St. Francis last week.

Donna Ferrante, a freshman, placed second to Bartholomew in the mile in 5:55 for Fremont.

Amy Tsau was a triple winner for Monta Vista, taking the 100, long jump and triple jump.

Cupertino 75, Homestead 52

Karen Hsu led the Pioneers (1-1) by clocking a quick 52.2 in the 300 low hurdles. She also placed second in the 440 and long jump.

Kim McGuigan won the triple jump (34-6) and the long jump (16-6) for Homestead.

Saratoga 76, Lynbrook 51

In a losing cause for the Vikings,

Michelle Wagner, volleyball and basketball standout, won the discus and shot put. The sophomore, who placed second in the shot at the DAAL meet a year ago, reached her personal best (108-8).

Also for Lynbrook, Cindy McCloskey doubled in the 100 (12.5) and 200 (27.4), and Samantha Spencer in the short hurdles (16.5) and long hurdles (51.6).

Carlmont wins, Mills edges M-A in PAL openers

STAFF

While league favorite Carlmont High breezed, Menlo-Atherton lost at the wire on the opening day of Peninsula Athletic League girls track and field.

Led by Suzanne Jones, Carlmont beat visiting Hillsdale, 74-45.

Meanwhile, Mills won the final event — the mile relay — to claim a 65-62 victory at M-A.

In other PAL meets, Aragon beat visiting Woodside, 73-54, and San Mateo won at Sequoia, 71-56.

Jones, one of the PAL's top cross country performers last fall, won the mile (5:42) and two-mile (12:23) for Carlmont.

Tuliana Rodan won the 100 low hurdles and the 200 in addition to taking third in the high jump for the Scots.

Meanwhile, Mills edged M-A by finishing the mile relay in 4:30. The Vikings won that race and dominated the long distances behind Jeanene Harlick, Jill Kurz and Alva Dancel.

The trio placed in that order in the two-mile, with Harlick clocking 12:19. Dancel won the 880 in 2:32.

The Bears received fine efforts by Chi Chi Johnson and Angela Earle, both of whom are coming off a successful basketball season.

Johnson, who finished second at the Central Coast Section meet in the high jump last year as a sophomore, won the event in 5-2 on Thursday. She also won the 100 and finished third in the 440, which was won by Earle in 1:04.9.

Earle also won the 220 in 28.4.

JoAnna Couluris won both hurdle events for the Bears, taking the 110 in 17.5 and the 330 in 52.4.

Elsewhere, Candice Torresdal won the short hurdles in a good early season time of 16.5 for Woodside. The Wildcat standout also displayed her multi-dimensional talents by taking second in the 110 hurdles, the 880 and high jump.

Santa Clara Valley

Heidi Herrmann and Amy Cheli were double-winners as Los Altos took a 95-32 win over visiting Milpitas.

Herrmann won the 200 in 29.03 and the 400 in 1:08.37. Cheli won the high jump and long jump.

Tracy Shoemaker won the 2-mile in 12:40 and took second in the 800 for Los Altos.

In another SCVAL meet, Palo Alto (1-1) bounced back from its loss to rival Gunn to take a 79-48 win at Santa Clara (0-2).

Sandy Dyche led the Vikes by winning the mile and two-mile.
