OUT FOR REPEAT—Ron Larrieu, tiny Palo Alto cross-country star, will be out to duplicate his winning effort in PAL competition tomorrow when North Coast sub-section championships are held at Stanford Golf Course. Larrieu set a new record over the 1.94-mile course, even though Carlmont High ran off with the team title.

NCS cross country championship on Stanford prep distance course

An estimated 176 high school runners representing 26 schools will meet tomorrow in the North Coast Section cross country championships on the Stanford prep course.

Carlmont's Peninsula Athletic League champions will meet Santa Rosa, Jefferson, Salinas and Riordan of San Francisco, according to Coach Forrest Jamieson of Palo Alto who has charge of meet arrangements.

Coach Phil Arnot's young Highlanders are rated a fine chance of coping this subsection meet, but the going gets rougher a week hence when NCS finals are to be held.

Paly sophomores down Capuchino

Palo Alto's sophomore football team pulled a 20-14 win over Capuchino yesterday at Palo Alto to stay in the running for the Peninsula Athletic League title.

Quarterback Bob Williams had a hand in scoring every Paly point. He clicked on long pass plays to Gene Nelson and Ko Abe for tallies and ran the other across on a quarterback sneak. Williams kicked both extra points.

The Lil' Vikes were trailing 7-6 at halftime but came back to score twice in the third period.

Santa Rosa, and Carlmont's Craig Spillman and Tom Jent are figured to wage a hard fought scrap for individual honors.

Palo Alto is regarded as a strong bet to win its grind starting at 3:10, while the opener at 2:30 pits Los Gatos, Bishop O'Dowd of Oakland and Piedmont in a three-way feud.

Tamalpais will be well-liked to defeat Burlingame in the 3:10 2:50 match, but Coach Vic Mangini's Panthers are a solid choice for second honors.

The last race finds Hayward and James Lick of San Jose challenging favored Richmond. That one starts at 3:50.

Here's the complete lineup, with schools matched on the basis of enrollment:

Group I (2:30 p.m.) — San Ramon, Bishop O'Dowd of Oakland, Piedmont, South San Francisco and Los Gatos.

Group II (2:50 p.m.) — Burlingame, Tamalpais, Washington of Centerville, Willow Glen of San Jose and Sir Francis Drake of San Anselmo.

Group III (3:10 p.m.) — Santa Clara, San Jose, Acalanes of Lafayette, Napa College and Palo Alto.

Group IV (3:30 p.m.) — Carlmont, Santa Rosa, Jefferson, Salinas and Riordan of San Francisco.

Group V (3:50 p.m.) — Sequoia, James Lick of San Jose, San Lorenzo, Berkeley, Hayward and Richmond.

EAST LANSING, Mich. (NEA) Michigan State's ice arena has a surface measuring 200 feet by 87. Twelve miles of piping are used to freeze the ice.

Paly takes water polo championship

Coach Nort Thornton's Palo Alto water polo team wrested the Peninsula Athletic League championship from Sequoia yesterday afternoon, 4-2, at the Cherokee pool.

The Vikings climaxed an unbeaten season against high school competition, including six wins over league foes. The over-all season record is 10-2, suffering losses to Stanford and California freshmen teams.

Sequoia made yesterday's battle a do-or-die effort by holding high scoring Jim Harper to two goals. The teams waged on even terms for more than half the game but a goal by Harper in the third period and one by Don Tuttle in the fourth broke a 2-2 halftime deadlock.

Kirby Kittoe scored Paly's other goal while Erwin Haydock tallied both for the Tribe.
