Success Varied On Busy Weekend

The Aztec soccer team ran its win streak to three Saturday beating Mexicali 3-0 on the SDS field, and coach George Logan was jubilant.

"It was quite a thrill to beat them," Logan said, "because they are a good team."

The Aztecs scored early on a Julian Garcia kick in the third minute of play.

The SDS team iced the contest with two more goals, one each from Gail Gardner and Ruben Marchoski.

Logan lauded Aztec goalie Marcello De Rosa and said he made one great save to assure the shutout win.

The defending national champion Aztec sailing team will be one of eight collegiate teams competing in the third annual Douglas Cup Regatta Nov. 1-3 in Long Beach.

Weekend victors in their own SDS regatta, the Aztecs will be challenging University of British Columbia, host Cal State Long Beach, USC, Washington, Cincinnati, Tulane, and the US Naval Academy at Annapolis.

The Aztec sailers won their SDS regatta Saturday, finishing 13 points ahead of second place UCI, with 85 points.

UCLA, University of California

Santa Barbara and USD finished third, fourth, fifth respectively behind the Aztecs.

The Stanford Indians, led by Greg Brook's fourth place finish, upset favorite University of Southern California and highly rated San Diego State at the Sacramento State Invitational cross country meet Saturday.

The Indians winning score of 49 beat USC's 50 and the Aztecs' 53. Clearly a position change of one place among the top three teams could have won or lost the meet. San Jose State, a co-favorite with USC, placed a distant fourth behind SDS with 118 points.

Tom Davidson paced the Aztec Harriers as he finished third behind Oly Oleson, 21:00 and Dave Sellers 21:01 of USC. Davidson's time was 21:02.

Tim Danielson finished sixth in 21:06, Pete Virgadamo was 11th, Dave Hamblen 12th, Roger Friend 21st, Alan Leverenz 24th, and Skip Crowley 28th for SDS. There were 21 teams competing and 153 runners finished the race.

SDS has now lost to USC four times in the last two years but will face the Trojans Nov. 2 at the Aztec Invitational. SDS will probably have to wait until the nationals to get another shot at Stanford.
