SAN MATEO — Hillsdale High may have boasted the top individual cross-country runners, but Aragon displayed stronger teams in a non-league dual meet Tuesday at Aragon.

John Tanner of Hillsdale captured the individual title in the boys' varsity race, running 13:29 over the 2.6-mile course.

Overall, Aragon won the team competition, 20-38. Five Aragon runners followed Tanner, led by Robert Costello, who ran a 13:42 for second place.

Nadir Chafik, Skip Connors, Jack Durham and Chris Ellertson placed from third through sixth.

Hillsdale freshman Amy Viall easily ran past the rest of the field in the girls' race, winning in 15:52. Mary Manolakis, an Aragon soph, finished second, 30 seconds behind, then came Dons' Sally Bennett, Linda Sell and Cathy Cunningham. Aragon took a 22-34 team victory.
